

Summary

Presentation	11
F. Laroussi and F. Liénard
1. Shimaore and Kiswahili in Mayotte	17
Ngalasso-Mwatha Musanji
2. Multiculturalism: an illusion or a sustainable political schema	29
Cynthia Fleury
3. The political and social message of interviews	41
Christine Deprez
4. French as school language in Mayotte	53
Foued Laroussi
5. Electronic writing in Mayotte: a case study of texting	67
Fabien Liénard
6. French as a springboard for growth in Mayotte	85
Clément Mbom
7. A sociolinguistic approach to multilingualism among schoolchildren in Mayotte	95
Véronique Miguel Addisu
8. Bilingualism on trial: Assessing the impact on pupil learning of bilingual teaching programmes in primary schools in New-Caledonia, French Polynesia and Guyana	107
Isabelle Nocus, Jacques Vernaudo, Mirose Paia, Philippe Guimard and Agnès Florin
9. Achieving an intelligent use of mother tongues	121
Michel Launey
10. Roll up, roll up for the Language Circus!	137
Sara R. Greaves and Marie-Laure Schultze
11. The other side of the story. Colonial politics still shape attitudes to language use in school in Africa. Contrast between South Africa and Mozambique	147
Michel Lafon
12. Home language surveys as a starting point for language policy development in education in Suriname	163
Kutlay Yagmur and Sjaak Kroon	